

PROJECT ENGINEER, SHIP ELECTRICAL

JOB PROFILE:

- Electrical engineering and design work in new building or conversion basic design and detail projects in multidiscipline environment according to customer's requirements.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- A broad understanding of electrical systems ranging from power distribution to automation.
- Ability to produce system schematics.
- Ability to produce engineering drawings.
- B.Sc. degree or equal experience in a relevant engineering discipline.
- Good computer skills (AutoCad, MS Office).
- Fluent English, both oral and written.
- Willingness to travel is considered as positive.

PERSONAL QUALITIES:

- Structured, creative and solution oriented.
- Independent and a good team player.
- Excellent cooperation and communication skills.
- Ability to maintain good relations with customer.
- Result and market oriented.

WE OFFER:

- Competitive salary.
- Flexible working hours.
- Good and inspiring working environment.
- Job location either in Mariehamn or Turku.

Interested candidates may submit your resume and a covering letter to mattias.jorgensen@foreship.com latest by 31.1.2019.

About Foreship

Foreship is an independent, privately owned naval architect and marine engineering company with 100 professionals, turnover in 2018 more than 12 MEURO. We are the leading cruise ship newbuilding consultant and conversion specialist and have participated in most of the recent large newbuilding's and challenging conversion projects. Foreship offices are in Helsinki, Turku, Mariehamn, Rauma, Tallinn, Fort Lauderdale and Seattle.